
RESOLUTION READ TO COURT BY JUDGE THOMAS:

WHEREAS, there is now pending in the Chancery Court at Lebanon, Wilson County, Tennessee, a lawsuit styled: R. B. McConnell vs. City of Lebanon, Tennessee, et al, which prays the court to decide and declare the constitutionality of Chapter 209 of the Public Acts of 1955, known as the "Industrial Building Bond Act of 1955", and;

WHEREAS, ~~like~~ the City of Lebanon, Tennessee, party defendant in said ~~suit~~, has filed an answer with numerous composite exhibits, averring, alleging and praying that the court declare said act constitutional, and,

WHEREAS, the purpose of said Act is to permit municipalities and counties to build industrial buildings under the terms and conditions of said Act, pledging their credit therefor, in order to halt, reduce and retard the out migration of the citizens of Tennessee; to remove and/or eliminate the evils attendant to unemployment; to increase the amounts of the average family income in Tennessee, and to give Tennessee an Industrial Building law competitive with other states of our country, and,

WHEREAS, it is to the manifest interest of Weakley County and all her citizens, the entire State of Tennessee and all of her citizens, that Chapter 209 of the Public Acts of 1955, be declared constitutional, and,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE Weakley County Quarterly Court, in regular session, that said Weakley County support the constitutionality of Chapter 209 of the Public Acts of 1955, known as the "Industrial Building Bond Act of 1955", and that Weakley County file an intervening petition in said suit at Lebanon, Tennessee, requesting to be made a party defendant thereto, and adopting the answer of the city of Lebanon, Tennessee, which supports the constitutionality of said act, and that Weakley County, if it so desires, file a brief amicus curiae in the Supreme Court at Nashville, Tennessee, supporting the constitutionality of said act.

Motion made by Esq. I. G. Hatler to approve this resolution, seconded by Esq. Dalton Glover. Unanimously approved.
